Descriptive Writing: Character Description

We read up the point yesterday where Dadci introduced us to the Sandman. 'A great fat giant lying sleeping in the sand'.

Task 1: Before we are introduced to the Sandman further, I would like you to predict/imagine what he looks like. Look at the picture below of a different cover of our book, it may give you some ideas.

Can you draw a picture of what The Sandman could look like, and write a descriptive paragraph to describe him?
