

Thursday 21st January English Task

Writing Instructions

Task 1: Please read a little bit of our book independently. (Pages 28 – 30)

What is The Sandman's favourite thing to eat?

Today we are going to write a recipe for a Bladderwrack sandwich. Using what we recapped yesterday I would like you to imagine what a Bladderwrack sandwich is like. You can add any toppings you think will go best, remember to be imaginative.

Task 2: On a piece of paper, or using the template provided, please write a set of instructions.

Remember:

- √ Always use good description and detail, including expanded noun phrases.
- √ Remember the structure of instructions. Have you included ingredients and method?
- √ Use bossy verbs to command the reader. E.g. 'put'
- √ Use adverbs to tell the reader how to perform each task.
- √ Use your imaginations. You can add extra toppings, change what type of bread is in it or even add a special sauce. Who knows what he might like! Have fun with it!
- √ Some of you will know to add brackets to give extra information to the reader. You could add bits of humour or top tips.

I can't wait to read what you come up with 😊
