

Acomb First School

Books and Butties!

PTA Coffee morning and World Book Day Reading Stay and Share

Thursday 7th March 2019

As part of our World Book Day celebrations and our continued effort to promote a love of reading in school we would like to invite you into school to enjoy some reading activities and some dedicated reading time with your child/children in class.

The classrooms will be open for visitors from 9.05 am until 9.45 am.

From 9.45 am the PTA will be serving coffee, refreshments and bacon sandwiches in the school hall until 10.15 am.

Please enter through the door at the top of the ramp and sign in, in the hall. Please then make your way to classrooms. Following the reading sessions please make your way the hall for refreshments. Don't forget to sign out again before you leave too.

Please note that drinks must remain in the hall and that buggies will need to be left outside.

We look forward to seeing you!